Largest and Greenest
Campus in HK

The Chinese University of Hong Kong (CUHK) is a comprehensive research university with a global vision. It was founded with a mission to combine tradition with modernity and to bring together China and the West. CUHK's firmly rooted Chinese culture, multiculturalism and its unique college system sets itself apart from other universities in Hong Kong and in the region.

CUHK has always been at the forefront of teaching and research, nurturing the next generation of leaders in all fields and advancing the frontiers of knowledge and technology. The galaxy of distinguished scholars and researchers at CUHK include a Nobel Laureate, a Fields medallist, a Turing Award winner, and countless academics with international recognition.

Located in Shatin, a suburban area of Hong Kong, the CUHK campus overlooks the scenic Tolo Harbour and is nestled in greenery. Over the years, it has evolved into the largest, greenest and most sustainably designed campus in the city. A wide range of academic, residential, sports and leisure facilities provide an all-round campus experience for anyone studying at CUHK.

THE OFFICE OF ACADEMIC LINKS

The Office of Academic Links (OAL) at CUHK serves as the international relations arm for the University. OAL promotes and facilitates the internationalisation of the University in its research, teaching and learning programmes so as to seek recognition for the University as a leader on the global stage and to nurture students to have a high degree of inter-cultural sensitivity, tolerance and a global perspective.

Student exchange and study abroad programmes

The first student exchange programme at CUHK was launched in 1965 with the University of California system. Since then, CUHK has continued to receive students through over 280 programmes with partner institutions in more than 30 locations worldwide. With a population of over 2,500 international visiting students each year, CUHK is truly an international melting pot.

We are here for you

OAL will be your home department at CUHK and is the single point of contact to facilitate all aspects of your study at the University, both before and after arrival:

HONG KONG

Asia's World City, City of Life

Hong Kong is not just an ordinary metropolitan city. It is the hub of Asia. A city that never sleeps with non-stop intensity. A perfect blend of fascinating contrasts where East meets West, where busy city pace meets natural countryside, and where endless skyscrapers meet traditional lifestyle. Here, you can find a variety of rich and diverse experiences packed in an easy and fast to get around city.

Housing

Undergraduate exchange students are guaranteed in on-campus housing and are assigned to double or triple-occupancy rooms. Living with local students will ease the transition to a new environment and promote Chinese culture immersion. On-campus housing is assigned automatically; application is not required.

Cost of Living

Generally speaking, living in Hong Kong can be expensive, however living at CUHK is extremely affordable as on-campus hostels and meals at student canteens are heavily subsidised. The table on the right shows the approximate living costs at CUHK for an undergraduate in one term.

Item	HKD	USD*

Follow traces of Chinese and Western cultures

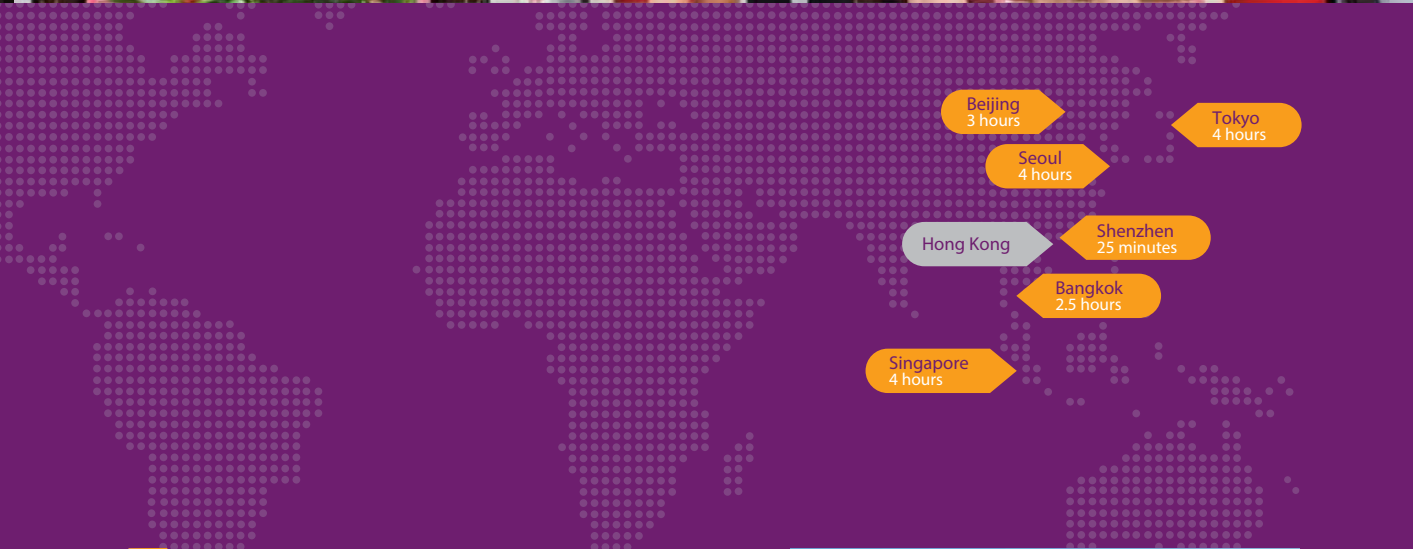

Traditional Chinese values such as loyalty to friends and family, and respect for the elderly are well preserved while its history as a former British colony has left a legacy of western ways.

Explore the outdoors

Escape the bustling city life and enjoy the wide variety of outdoor activities available, just minutes away from the urban centre.

Eat and shop around the clock

Street stalls and shopping malls offer great bargains and operate until late in the evening. Chinese and international cuisines are abundant and delicious night snacks can be found at 24-hour eateries.

Travel to mainland China and Asia in a blink

The train from CUHK reaches the border of mainland China in just 25 minutes. A day trip to Shenzhen or a study break to Beijing are just some of the extensive options available. Being in the centre of Asia, travelling around is extremely fast and easy.

The Yale-China Chinese Language Centre (CLC) offers Cantonese and Putonghua courses at all levels. Most undergraduate exchange students can take a maximum of 6 units (2 courses) each term without paying additional tuition fees. Postgraduate exchange students are required to pay tuition for taking Chinese proficiency courses.

CUHK's world-class library facilities are hubs for knowledge and idea exchange.

Immerse in Chinese culture through traditional Chinese arts and crafts.

OUTSIDE THE CLASSROOM

Cultural and social experiences are integral parts of your exchange at CUHK besides classroom education. A wide range of activities are available outside the classroom for you to get in touch with local and international students, explore Chinese culture, experience Hong Kong and enjoy your time at CUHK.

Orientation

The orientation prepares you for your time at CUHK and covers extensive information for surviving on campus and in Hong Kong. It is an excellent opportunity to get familiar with fellow international students.

Cultural and extra-curricular activities

Field trips and excursions around town, gatherings, and classes in Chinese martial arts, calligraphy and cooking are just some of the many activities available for international students at CUHK.

Community service programme

Opportunities are available to international students to engage in community service to those in need. For example, I-CARE is a programme designed to inspire students to examine the meaning of life and nurture their compassion in serving the society while enhancing their own personal growth.

Accommodation

Undergraduate international students live in shared accommodation at one of the nine colleges. They are conveniently located across the campus and are easily accessible with the on-campus bus system. Living with a local roommate is the quickest way to adapt to the new environment and culture.

Meeting the locals

There will be many opportunities to meet local students at classes, canteens, karaoke, hiking trips, BBQs and other social gatherings. Be curious, open-minded and daring.

Student organisations

CUHK boasts a variety of student organisations, from Chinese martial arts to photography to drama. Those within academic departments and colleges are often the most active. Most take place in Cantonese but international students can participate with rewarding results.

Student services and facilities

A range of facilities, resources and support services are available to support your life at CUHK. They include computing labs, libraries, health clinic, counselling services, sports facilities, canteens, bookstores, supermarket, banks and even a hair salon.

College activities

Colleges organise a variety of activities, including singing contests, varsity sports, drama nights, festive celebrations and language enhancement programmes. Dessert nights are not to be missed.

SUMMER@CUHK

CUHK International Summer School

The CUHK International Summer School (ISS) was first offered in 2004 and has since become one of the most popular university summer programmes in the region. Each year, over 600 international students gather at the CUHK campus to join local students in an intensive programme of academic and cultural immersion. This is a great opportunity for you to gain a Hong Kong and Asian perspective from your peers and to explore Chinese culture through activities, excursions and field trips.

July Session

The ISS July Session is a 5-week programme that takes place in late June to early August. You enrol up to two 3-credit courses in a wide range of academic disciplines. Join the optional Beijing tour to explore China's historic capital city.

Over 20 courses are on offer in these areas:

- Business and Management
- China Studies
- Chinese Language (Putonghua / Mandarin and Cantonese)
- Environment, Science and Technology
- Humanities and Social Science

August Session

The ISS August Session is a 3-week programme that runs from early to late August. You enrol in two 3-credit courses of intensive Chinese language training in Putonghua (Mandarin) and Cantonese. Beginner to advanced levels are available. There is opportunity to acquire pragmatic competence through classroom learning and immersion activities.

Visit www.summer.cuhk.edu.hk for more details on the CUHK International Summer School.

SURP is an invaluable opportunity for undergraduates to explore their postgraduate careers.

The ISS is a summer programme that combines vigorous academic studies and cultural immersion for students from around the world.

Summer Undergraduate Research Programme

The Summer Undergraduate Research programme (SURP) is an opportunity for international undergraduate students to undertake research attachment at CUHK for eight weeks from June to August. Students will conduct research under the supervision of a CUHK faculty member and earn 3 credits upon successful completion of the programme.

Visit www.summer.cuhk.edu.hk/surp for more details on the Summer Undergraduate Research Programme.
